What are my obligations?

To compile your quotation, we have used the information you provided us with during the online application as well as any correspondence with us where relevant. Please check that all the information is correct. Failure to do so may affect your policy including claims not being paid or fully paid. You must inform us in writing as soon as possible of any change in an insured person's occupation, habits, leisure pursuits or bodily powers; or of any bodily injury or change in state of health not already notified to us before;

You must notify our Emergency Assistance Service immediately when an accident occurs before agreeing to any treatment or repatriation arrangement. Any medical services or repatriation arrangements refused by you or agreed by you without our prior approval will not be subject to indemnity or reimbursement.

You must inform us of any change in an insured person's occupation, habits, leisure pursuits or bodily powers or change in state of health not already notified to us before.

When and how do I pay?

This insurance is payable for online upon your acceptance of the quotation. When hitting the 'Pay Now' button on the website, you will be redirected to the website of our provider of ecommerce payment solutions, Realex Payments, a division of Global Payments Inc.

When does the cover start and end?

This is an annual policy and your dates of cover are shown in your schedule of insurance.

How do I cancel the contract?

You can cancel within 14 days of receipt of the certificate documents, the Cooling Off period, and you may do so by writing to us at cic@uk.cntaiping.com for a full refund providing you have not travelled and no claim has been made. If you cancel after the first 14 days of receipt of the documents, no premium refund will be made if you have travelled or made a claim but otherwise a pro-rata refund will be due to you minus an admin charge of £25.

Governing law

The policies we issue are governed by English Law. We may, if we both agree in writing, deem a policy to be governed by a different law. However, if there is a dispute, it will only be dealt with in the courts of England or of the country within the United Kingdom in which your main residence is situated
