Your Policy

This Office Insurance Policy confirms the insurance cover agreed between you (the insured) and us (the company).

Your policy comprises several different parts, which must be read together as they form your contract of insurance with us. We advise you to read these carefully to ensure that all the details are correct and that they meet your requirements, and that you understand the terms, conditions and exclusions.

The policy comprises the statement of fact, this policy wording and the schedule.

Please ensure that you contact your insurance adviser, or us as appropriate, as soon as reasonably possible if you think that there are amendments to be made or new circumstances that would affect your insurance. Please refer to General Condition 7 for more details.

For ease of reference, the procedures for notifying us of a claim under your policy, and the Conditions relating to all claims under your policy, are stated separately at the back of this policy document.

Insuring Clause

In consideration of the insured having paid, or agreed to pay, the premium required, the company will indemnify the insured, in accordance with the cover detailed in those Sections shown as operative or where a sum insured or limit of indemnity is shown in the schedule, and occurring in connection with the business during the period of insurance, or any subsequent period for which the company agrees to accept payment of the premium.

Each Section of the policy, the schedule and any endorsement(s), together with the General Policy Definitions, Conditions, Exclusions and Extensions shall be read as one document.

CUSTOMER INFORMATION

COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

We make every effort to deliver a high quality service to our policyholders. If you have a complaint about our service, or about a claim, we operate a swift and effective complaints handling procedure.

1. Your complaint can be made orally or in writing, and on your behalf by a third party.
2. If you wish to make a complaint you should contact:
The Compliance Officer,
China Taiping Insurance (UK) Company Limited,
2 Finch Lane,
London EC3V 3NA.
Tel: 0207 839 1888 or Fax 0207 621 1202
E-mail: compliance@uk.cntaiping.com
3. Our Compliance Officer will acknowledge the complaint. We aim to resolve your concerns in three working days but if we are unable to do so we will confirm to you that we have received your complaint within five working days and advise you of the person who will be dealing with the complaint, and when you can expect to receive a detailed response. The person dealing with the complaint will be a senior member of staff who was not directly involved in the matter which is the subject of the complaint. They will have the authority and experience to adequately address the complaint and explain the results of the investigation.
4. If your complaint should be more appropriately dealt with by another firm, we will ensure it is referred to them as soon as practicable and certainly no later than five business days of becoming satisfied that another firm is or may be responsible for the matters complained of. We will make this referral to the other firm in writing and advise you by way of a final response that the referral has been made and include the other firm's contact details.
5. Your complaint will be thoroughly investigated and we will respond to it as soon as possible. Within eight weeks we will provide a final response to your complaint in writing or, if it is not possible to respond within that time, we will inform you in writing within twenty business days, why we have been unable to resolve the complaint within that time, why we need more time to do so and when you can expect to receive our final response.
6. If we have not completed our investigation, within eight weeks after the complaint was made, we will write to you and explain why there is a further delay. We will also confirm when we expect to issue our final response and advise you that you may be eligible to refer the complaint to the Financial Ombudsman Service, if you are dissatisfied with the delay. Their address is:

YOUR RIGHT TO CANCEL

a) “Cooling-off period”

If you are a ‘consumer’ (deemed to be: an individual entering into an insurance contract wholly or mainly for purposes unrelated to his or her trade, business or profession or a micro-enterprise being an enterprise employing less than 10 persons and a turnover or annual balance sheet that does not exceed € million), you have the right to cancel this insurance policy within 14 days of receiving the policy documentation and receive a full refund of any premium paid, provided that there have been no claims either paid, reported or outstanding. For the purposes of this cancellation clause, it will be deemed that you will have received the policy document upon the day following the date it was posted to you by first class post.

If you do cancel this insurance within the initial 14 day period, then no cover will have been in place from the date of inception, as specified in the schedule, and no liability whatsoever shall attach to the company in respect of the policy.

b) Other than during the “Cooling-off period”

If you are not a “consumer”, or are a “consumer” who does not exercise their right of cancellation within the initial 14 day period, this insurance policy will automatically come into force from the inception date specified in the schedule. You will remain liable to pay the full annual premium.

Following the expiry of the initial 14 day period, this insurance policy may be cancelled at any time at your written request. Provided that there have not been any claims paid, reported or outstanding, we will refund a pro rata proportion of the annual premium payable, less an appropriate administration charge. Should a claim, or potential claim have been paid, reported or be outstanding, then there may not be any return of premium.

To exercise your right to cancel, contact the broker who arranged this cover for you.

The Law that Governs this Policy and Jurisdiction

The parties to this contract are free to choose the law applicable to the contract. Unless specifically agreed to the contrary, this insurance policy shall be subject to the law governing England and Wales.

The indemnity provided by this policy shall apply only to judgements against you in the Courts of Law of England and Wales, Scotland, Northern Ireland, the Isle of Man and the Channel Islands; and not to judgements obtained elsewhere, nor to Judgements or orders obtained in the said courts for enforcement of foreign judgements whether by way of reciprocal agreements or otherwise.

The premium for this policy has been calculated accordingly and no consideration has been paid in respect of sums payable under any other law or the jurisdiction of any other courts.

The Law that Governs the interpretation of this Policy

All disputes concerning the interpretation of this policy are understood and agreed by both you and us to be subject to English Law. Each party agrees to submit to the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within England and to comply with all requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction. All matters arising hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice of such court.

This policy should be read carefully and if it is incorrect return it immediately to your insurance advisor for alteration.

This policy should be kept in a safe place – you may need to refer to it if you have to make a claim. It is recommended that you to retain details of your Employers Liability insurance and certificates for at least 60 years.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

The following Conditions apply to all Sections of this policy and the insured must comply with them or this policy may not be in force

(1) ARBITRATION

If the company accepts liability for a claim under this policy but there is a dispute in respect of the amount to be paid the dispute will be referred to an arbitrator appointed in accordance with the relevant law in force at the time

In these circumstances the arbitrator's award must be made before there is any right of action against the company

(2) AVERAGE

If the value of the property covered by this policy shall, at the time of damage, be greater than its sum insured, you shall only be entitled to recover such proportion of your claim as the sum insured bears to the total value of the said property.

(3) CANCELLATION

The company may cancel this policy by sending thirty days' notice by recorded delivery letter to you at your last known address, unless our reason for cancellation is deliberate or reckless misrepresentation on your part. Otherwise, notice will be deemed to be on the date of delivery if the notice is delivered by hand, or two working days after posting if notice is sent by post or courier.

If we cancel because of deliberate or reckless misrepresentation, then your policy will be cancelled with immediate effect.

If we cancel your policy and you have not made a claim, you will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid for any unexpired period of insurance for which you have paid. However, if we cancel your policy because of deliberate or reckless misrepresentation, then we will not refund any premium.

Where a claim has been made during the current period of insurance the full annual premium will still be payable despite cancellation of cover and we reserve the right to deduct this from any claim payment

(4) CONDITIONS PRECEDENT TO LIABILITY

The company shall not be liable for any claim where you haven't complied with any part of any condition to which payment of a claim is subject (a condition precedent) to except for when the concerned condition:-

- (a) relates to a particular premises only, we will pay for a claim arising out of an event occurring at premises which are not specified in any conditions precedent to liability;
- (b) relates to a particular time only, we will pay for a claim arising out of an event if you can prove, on the balance of probabilities, that your non-compliance with such condition precedent to liability did not cause or contribute to the loss, damage or injury occurred in the circumstances in which it occurred;
- (c) relates and aims at reducing particular types of injury, liability, losses or damage only, we will pay for a claim arising out of an event if you can prove, on the balance of probabilities, that your non-compliance with such condition precedent to liability did not cause or contribute to the loss, damage or injury in the circumstances in which it occurred;

(5) CONTRACTS (RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES) ACT 1999

A person or company who was not party to this policy has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term of this policy but this Condition does not affect any right or remedy of a third party which exists or is available other than by virtue of this Act.

(6) GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION

It is agreed by the insured that any information provided to the company regarding the insured for the purpose of accepting insurance and handling any claims may if necessary be divulged to third parties provided that it will be processed by the company in compliance with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation.

(7) DUTY OF FAIR REPRESENTATION

The insured must make a fair representation of the risk to the company at inception, renewal and variation of the policy.

- (a) In the absence of such fair representation, the company may avoid the policy and refuse to pay any claims where any failure to make a fair representation is:
- i) deliberate or reckless; or
 - ii) of such other nature that, if the insured had made a fair representation, the company would not have underwritten the risk.
- The company will return the premium paid by the insured unless the failure to make a fair representation is deliberate or reckless;
- (b) If the company would have issued the policy on different terms had the insured made a fair representation, the company will not avoid the policy (except where the failure is deliberate or reckless) but the company may instead:-
- i) reduce proportionately the amount paid or payable on any claim, the proportion for which the company is liable being calculated by comparing the premium actually charged as a percentage of the premium which the company would have charged had the insured made a fair representation; and/or
 - ii) treat the policy as if it had included such additional terms (other than those requiring payment of premium) as the company would have imposed had the insured made a fair representation

For the purposes of this condition references to:

- 1) avoiding a policy means treating the policy as if it had not existed from the inception date (where the failure to make a fair representation of the risk occurs before or at the inception of the policy), the renewal date (where the failure occurs at renewal of the policy), or the variation date (where the failure occurs when the policy is varied);
- 2) refunds of premium should be treated as refunds of premium back to the inception date, renewal date or variation date as the context requires;
- 3) issuing a policy should be treated as references to issuing the policy at inception, renew or varying the policy as the context requires.

(8) EFFECT OF CLAIMS ON SUMS INSURED

Except where otherwise provided for under any Section of this policy

- (a) the sums insured in this policy will be reduced until expiry of the period of insurance by the amount of any loss destruction damage interruption or interference with the business
- (b) if any sum insured is subject to the condition of Average and further claims arise before expiry of the period of insurance the application of such condition of Average may have the effect of increasing the proportion of the loss which you will have to bear
- (c) on request and if not otherwise provided for under any Section of this policy following a claim the company will consider reinstating the original sums insured subject to any additional premium revised terms and further precautions that may be necessary

(9) EMPLOYERS LIABILITY TRACING OFFICE

By entering into this insurance policy you will be deemed to specifically consent to use of your insurance policy data in the following way and for the following purposes.

- (a) Certain information relating to your insurance policy including without limitation
 - (i) the policy number(s);
 - (ii) employers' names and addresses (including subsidiaries and any relevant changes of name)
 - (iii) dates of cover
 - (iv) employers' reference numbers provided by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs; and
 - (v) Companies House reference numbers (if relevant) will be provided to the Employers Liability Tracing Office (ELTO) and added to the electronic database.

- (b) This information will be made available by the company to ELTO in a specified and readily accessible form as required by the Employers Liability Insurance Disclosure by Company Instrument 2011. This information will be subject to regular periodic updating and certification and will be audited on an annual basis.
- (c) The database will assist individual customer claimants who have suffered an employment related injury or disease arising out of the course of their employment in the UK for employers carrying on or who carried on business in the UK and who are covered by the employers' liability insurance of their employers (claimants).
 - (i) to identify which company(ies) provided employers' liability cover during the relevant periods of employment; and
 - (ii) to identify the relevant employers' liability insurance policies.

(10) FRAUDULENT CLAIMS

If you or anyone acting on your behalf makes any false, deliberately caused, exaggerated or fraudulent claim or makes use of false or fraudulent documents, statements to support a claim (regardless of whether or not the claim itself is genuine), we will:-

- (a) refuse to pay the whole of the claim; and
- (b) recover from you any sums that we already paid in respect of the claim.

We may also notify you that we will be treating the policy as having terminated with effect from the date of the earliest of any of the acts set out above and you will not be entitled to any refund of premium.

(11) INSTALMENTS

If the premium for this policy is payable by instalments it is a condition precedent to the company's liability that each instalment shall be paid when due otherwise all benefit under this policy shall be forfeited from the date when such instalment was due

(12) MATERIAL ALTERATION

You must notify the company as soon as possible if there is any alteration in your ownership in or to the business at the premises including but not limited to:-

- (a) your business being wound up or carried on by a liquidator or receiver;
- (b) changes in the facts as set out in the statement of facts and declared to us at inception, renewal or variation of the policy, which materially increases the risk of injury or damage
- (c) where your interest in the property as described in the schedule ceases other than by death;
- (d) in respect of subsidence if applicable, where any construction, demolition or excavation work is being carried out on adjoining sites.

Upon notification to us of such alteration, we may at our discretion:-

- (a) continue cover on the same terms;
- (b) impose additional terms or restrict cover where relevant;
- (c) alter the premium;
- (d) cancel this policy

If you fail to notify us of any such alteration, we may:-

- (a) treat this policy as if it had included such terms (other than relating to premium) that we would have applied had we known about the alteration from the date of such alteration in risk;
- (b) treat this policy as terminated from the date of such alteration had we cancelled this policy if we had known of the alteration and we will also return a proportionate amount of premium for the unexpired period of insurance;
- (c) reduce proportionally the settlement on any claim, the proportion for which is derived by comparing the premium we would have charged had we known about such alteration with the premium we actually charged.

(13) OTHER INSURANCE

If at the time of any injury or damage there be any other insurance

- (a) covering the whole or part of such injury or damage whether effected by the insured or not then the company shall not be liable to pay or contribute more than their rateable proportion of the total payment made for such injury or damage
- (b) on any of the property insured herein, either alone or together with any other property, which shall be subject to the condition of Average, or is limited in respect of the value of any article, or the total amount is divided in respect of said property; then this policy may, at the option of the company, be held to contain the same condition of Average, limit of value and division of amount, on a pro rata basis
- (c) which more specifically insures property insured herein this policy will not apply except in respect of any amount over and above that recoverable under such more specific insurance

This Condition does not apply to any personal accident benefit provided under this policy in respect of death or injury to any insured person

(14) PRECAUTIONS

You must

- (a) take all reasonable precautions to safeguard any property insured by this policy against damage and to prevent injury or loss or destruction of or damage to other property

If any property used by you at the premises for the purpose of your business

- (1) suffers damage as a result of an incident during the period of insurance and
- (2) in consequence your business as carried on by you at the premises suffers business interruption as defined below the company will indemnify you for
 - (a) loss resulting in business interruption
 - (b) reasonable charges payable by you to your professional accountants for producing any particulars or details or any other proof information or evidence that may be required by the company under the terms of General Conditions of this policy but not for preparing any claim

Provided that at the time of damage giving rise to business interruption your interest in the property at the premises is insured against such incident and

- (i) payment has been made or liability admitted for it by the company; or
- (ii) payment would have been made or liability admitted but for the operation of a deductible or other proviso excluding liability for losses below a specified amount.

DEFINITIONS TO THE BUSINESS INTERRUPTION SECTION

NB For the purpose of these definitions any adjustment implemented in current cost accounting shall be disregarded

Business Interruption

means interruption of or interference with the insured's business as carried on by them at the premises in consequence of an incident

Gross Rents

means money paid or payable to the insured in respect of the provision of rented or leased accommodation at the premises

Gross Revenue

means the money paid or payable to the insured in respect of work done and services provided in the course of the business

Incident

means damage to property used by the insured at the premises for the purpose of the business and which is insured by Sections 1 Contents or Section 10 Buildings of this policy

Maximum Indemnity Period

means period beginning with the occurrence of the damage and ending not later than the Maximum Indemnity Period (stated in the schedule applicable to this Section) thereafter during which the results of the business shall be affected in consequence thereof

Outstanding Debit Balances

means the total of outstanding customers' accounts last recorded by you before damage occurred and adjusted for

- (1) bad debts
- (2) amounts
 - (a) debited (or invoiced but not debited)
 - (b) credited (including credit notes and cash not passed through your books at the time of damage) to customers' accounts in the period between the date to which the last record (kept by you in accordance with Special Condition (2) of this Section) relates and the date of damage
- (3) any abnormal condition of trade which had or could have had a material effect on your business so that the adjusted figures will represent as nearly as reasonably practicable those which would have existed at the date of the damage had the damage not occurred

NB the words and expressions used in this definition shall have the meaning usually attached to them in your books and accounts

Annual Gross Rents or Gross Revenue

means gross rents or gross revenue during the 12 months immediately before the date of the damage

Standard Gross Rents or Gross Revenue

means gross rents or gross revenue during that period in the 12 months immediately before the date the damage which corresponds with the indemnity period to which such adjustments shall be made as may be necessary to provide for the trend of your business and for variations in or other circumstances affecting your business either before or after the damage or which would have affected your business had the damage not occurred so that the figures thus adjusted shall represent as nearly as may be reasonably practical the results which but for the damage would have been obtained during the relative period after the damage

BASIS OF PAYMENT(1) Gross Revenue (including Gross Rents)

The insurance under each Item on gross revenue is limited to

- (a) loss of gross revenue and
 - (b) increase in cost of working
- and the amount payable as indemnity thereunder shall be

- (i) in respect of loss of gross revenue the amount by which the gross revenue during the maximum indemnity period shall fall short of the standard gross revenue in consequence of the incident
- (ii) in respect of increase in cost of working the additional expenditure necessarily and reasonably incurred for the sole purpose of avoiding or diminishing the reduction in gross revenue which but for that expenditure would have taken place during the maximum indemnity period in consequence of the incident but not exceeding the amount of reduction in gross revenue thereby avoided less any sum saved during the maximum indemnity period in respect of such of the charges and expenses of the business payable out of gross revenue as may cease or be reduced in consequence of the incident

(2) Increased Costs of Working

The insurance under increased costs of working is limited to the additional expenditure, including the cost of obtaining temporary offices, and expenses incidental to the occupation thereof and additional employment costs and other abnormal expenditure, necessarily and reasonably incurred by the insured in consequence of the incident during the maximum indemnity period in order to continue the business

EXCLUSIONS TO THE BUSINESS INTERRUPTION SECTION

This Section does not cover loss resulting from interruption of or interference with your business

- (5) caused by or consisting of the bursting of any vessel machine or apparatus (not being a boiler or economiser on the premises or a boiler used for domestic purposes only) in which internal pressure is due to steam only and belonging to you or under your control but this will not exclude subsequent loss which itself results from a cause not excluded elsewhere in this Section or policy

SPECIAL CONDITIONS TO THE BUSINESS INTERRUPTION SECTION

- (1) If any standing charges of your business are not insured by this Section (having been deducted in arriving at the gross revenue) then in computing the amount recoverable hereunder as increased costs of working that proportion only of any additional expenditure shall be brought into account which the gross revenue or gross rentals bears to the sum of the gross revenue or gross rentals and the total of standing charges
- (2) If during the maximum indemnity period goods shall be sold or services rendered elsewhere than at the premises for the benefit of your business either by you or by others on your behalf the money paid or payable in respect of such sales or services shall be brought into account in arriving at the gross revenue or gross rentals during the maximum indemnity period
- (3) You will be entitled to receive interim payments as agreed between you and the company in advance of final settlement of any claim agreed under this Section
- (4) If your business is conducted in departments and the independent trading results of each can be traced the cover provided by this Section will apply separately to each department of your business affected in consequence of damage
- (5) To the extent that you are accountable to the tax authorities for Value Added Tax all terms relating to this Section will be exclusive of such tax
- (6) The insurance by this Section shall be avoided if
 - (a) the business is wound up, carried on by a liquidator or permanently discontinued; or
 - (b) your interest ceases otherwise than by death that any time after the commencement of this insurance unless the company agree it may continue.
- (7) If the incident occurs in the trading year of the business the indemnity under this Section will be based upon the trading figures prior to the loss.

BASIS OF PAYMENT

(1) Day One Value Basis

This Condition applies only when a "Declared Value" is also shown for any Item in the schedule applicable to this Section

- (a) The insured having stated in writing the "Declared Value" incorporated in each Item to which this Condition applies the premium has been calculated accordingly;
"Declared Value" means your assessment of the cost of reinstatement of the property insured by any Item arrived at in accordance with paragraph (a) of Reinstatement Basis of Payment at the level of costs applying at the inception of the period of insurance (ignoring inflationary factors which may operate subsequently) together with in so far as the insurance by the Item provides due allowance for
 - (i) the additional cost of reinstatement to comply with Public Authority requirements
 - (ii) professional fees
 - (iii) debris removal costs
- (b) At the inception of each period of insurance the insured shall notify the company of the "Declared Value" of the property insured by each of the said Item(s).
In the absence of such declaration the "Declared Value" for the previous period of insurance shall be increased by a percentage determined by the company and the resultant figure shall be taken as the Declared Value for the ensuing period of insurance
- (c) Proviso (ii) of Reinstatement Basis of Payment is amended to read:-
If at the time of damage the "Declared Value" of the property insured by such Item be less than the cost of reinstatement (as defined above) at the inception of the period of insurance then the company's liability for any damage shall not exceed that proportion thereof which the "Declared Value" bears to the cost of reinstatement
- (d) the liability of the company for the repair or restoration of damage to property insured will not exceed the amount that would have been paid if the property had been completely destroyed;
- (e) no payment will be made beyond the amount that would have been payable in the absence of this Clause unless reinstatement commences and proceeds without unreasonable delay is and until the cost of reinstatement has actually been incurred.

(2) Reinstatement Basis of Payment

Subject to the undernoted provisions the basis upon which the amount payable in respect of any Item to which this Condition applies (other than stock, motor vehicles and their accessories employees' directors' visitors' and guests pedal cycles and personal effects) is to be calculated shall be the reinstatement of the buildings lost destroyed or damaged

For this purpose reinstatement means

- (a) the rebuilding or replacement of any buildings lost or destroyed which provided the liability of the company's is not increased may be carried out
 - (i) in any manner suitable to your requirements
 - (ii) upon another site
- (b) the repair or restoration of any buildings damaged in either case to a condition equivalent to or substantially the same as but not better or more extensive than its conditions when new.
Provided that
 - (i) the liability of the company for the repair or restoration of any buildings damaged in part only shall not exceed the amount which would have been payable had such any buildings been wholly destroyed

- (ii) If at the time of reinstatement the sum representing 85% of the cost which would have been incurred in reinstating the whole of the buildings insured by any Item subject to this Condition exceeds its sum insured at the commencement of any damage the liability of the company shall not exceed that proportion of the amount of the damage which the said sum insured shall bear to the sum representing the whole of such buildings at that time
- (iii) No payment beyond the amount which would have been payable in the absence of this Condition shall be made
 - 1. unless reinstatement commences and proceeds without unreasonable delay
 - 2. until the cost of reinstatement shall have been actually incurred
 - 3. if the buildings insured by any Item at the time of its damage shall be insured by any other insurance effected by or on your behalf which is not upon the same basis of reinstatement

(3) Index Linking

This Condition applies to all items insured by this Section, other than any item on Rent. The sum insured (and the "Declared Value" where appropriate) on any Item will be adjusted by the percentage change in an appropriate price index determined by the company. No premium will be charged on such adjustments, but the renewal premium for the subsequent period of insurance will be calculated on the revised sums insured (and "Declared Value").

The index linking will continue to apply to the sum(s) insured of any property insured that is the subject of a claim (at the rate of 1/365th per day), until the time of final adjustment of the loss.

(4) European Union and Public Authorities

The cover under this Section for buildings extends to include additional costs of rebuilding or reinstatement of lost destroyed or damaged buildings which you incur solely to comply with

- (1) European Union Legislation, or
- (2) Building or other Regulations under or framed in pursuance of any Act of Parliament or with Bye Laws of any Public Authority excluding:-
 - (a) any such costs where the Item is not subject to the Reinstatement Basis of Payment Condition
 - (b) the cost incurred in complying with any of the aforesaid Regulations or Byelaws
 - (i) in respect of damage occurring before this cover was granted
 - (ii) in respect of damage not insured by this Section
 - (iii) under which notice was served upon you before the date of damage
 - (iv) in respect of undamaged buildings or undamaged portions of any buildings forming any part of the buildings sustaining damage except for undamaged foundations (unless foundations are specifically excluded from cover by endorsement to this policy)
- (3) the additional cost exceeding that which would have been required to make good any buildings which sustained damage to a condition equal to its condition when new had it not been necessary to comply with any one of the above Regulations or Byelaws
- (4) the amount of any charge or assessment arising out of capital appreciation which may be payable in respect of the buildings or by its owner in order to comply with any of the above Regulations or Byelaws;

Provided that:-

 - (a) the work of reinstatement must be commenced and carried out without unreasonable delay and in any case must be completed within 12 months after the date of the damage or within such further time as the company may allow (during the said 12 months) and may be carried out upon another site (if Regulations or Byelaws so require) subject to the company's liability not being increased by this additional cover
 - (b) if apart from this additional cover the company's liability for buildings is reduced by the application of any terms and conditions of this policy then the company's liability in respect of any such costs will be reduced in like proportion
 - (c) the total amount payable for buildings will not exceed the sum insured for it stated in the schedule applicable to this Section

SPECIAL CONDITIONS TO THE BUILDINGS SECTION

(1) Non-Invalidation

The insurance by this Section will not be made invalid by any act omission or alteration which unknown to you or beyond your control increases the risk of damage provided that you

- (a) notify the company immediately you become aware of such act omission or alteration and

SECTION 10 – THEFT BY EMPLOYEE

This Section applies only if Limits of Indemnity are shown against this Section in the schedule

INSURING CLAUSE

In the event of direct loss of money or other property belonging to or legally held by you by any act of theft committed by any employee during the period of insurance and discovered no later than 24 months after the termination of:-

- (1) this Insurance; or
- (2) the Insurance in respect of any employee specified by name or position whichever occurs first the company will indemnify the insured for the amount of loss up to the limit of indemnity stated in the schedule

DEFINITIONS TO THE THEFT BY EMPLOYEE SECTION

References

means written or fully documented verbal references obtained directly from 1 to 5 below for the period of 2 years immediately preceding the commencement of employment of the employee with the insured.

- (1) previous employers in respect of any period(s) of employment confirming the dates and honesty of the employee
- (2) the accountant and one other customer in respect of any period(s) of self employment confirming the dates and honesty of the employee
- (3) the school, college or similar in respect of any period(s) of full-time education confirming the dates and not indicating dishonesty by the employee
- (4) the Job Centre in respect of any period(s) of unemployment of the employee
- (5) where the employee has been discharged from HM Forces the insured should take a copy of the original discharge papers as evidence of the dates of service.

The maximum gap between two consecutive references without a further reference for the gap should be 28 days.

If the insured cannot obtain a reference for any period, the insured must obtain evidence of what the employee was doing, which must not indicate dishonesty (for example for overseas travel the evidence might be a copy of the passport).

Theft

means any act of fraud or dishonesty by an employee committed with the clear intent of obtaining an improper financial gain for themselves or for another person or organisation intended by the employee to receive such gain other than salaries fees commissions or other employee benefit earned in the normal course of employment.

BASIS OF PAYMENT

The liability of the company will not exceed the limit stated in the policy schedule to any one employee and in respect of all claims during the period of insurance

EXCLUSIONS TO THE THEFT BY EMPLOYEE SECTION

This Section does not cover

- (2) loss of interest or consequential loss of any kind
- (3) any loss which proof is dependent upon an inventory or a profit and loss computation
- (4) loss caused by any person hired or borrowed by the insured from another employer
- (5) loss caused by the act of any employee prior to the commencement of cover for that employee
- (6) a director who controls more than 5% of the issued share capital of the insured

SPECIAL CONDITIONS TO THE THEFT BY EMPLOYEE SECTION

- (1) any money of the employee held by the insured or any money or assets which, but for the act of fraud or dishonesty have been due to the employee shall be deducted from the amount of loss. Any subsequent recovery shall be shared in the proportion that the amount of the loss borne by company and the insured bears to the total amount of loss.
- (2) In the event of any claim the insured shall identify, by name, the employee who has committed the acts insured against giving rise to the loss which is the subject of such claim.
- (3) Immediately following discovery by the insured or any other person responsible for supervising employees of any act of fraud or dishonesty committed by an employee, this Insurance shall cease in respect of any further acts of fraud or dishonesty by such employee
- (4) the insured should retain references for all employees as they will need to produce them for each employee involved or implicated in a claim who was engaged on or after the commencement date of this Insurance.
- (5) The following Minimum Standards of Control and Supervision regarding financial matters of the insured's business are the company's minimum requirements and shall be operated or brought into force by the insured, and maintained throughout the period of insurance. No changes shall be made to the Minimum Standards of Control unless agreed in writing by the company:-
 - (a) Audit: the insured's accounts must be examined by external auditors every 12 months. Any recommendations made by the auditors, or alternatives acceptable to them, must be implemented by the insured without delay
 - (b) Cheque signing: any cheque or other bank instruments drawn for more than £5,000 shall require two signatories, both manually signed, after the amount payable has been inserted. At least one signatory must examine all the supporting documentation before signing. The insured's bank must be aware of this requirement.
 - (c) Payroll: For all employees not paid by crossed cheque or credit transfer, the amount of the total payroll shall be subject to an independent check before payment is made to verify the amount being drawn. At least once per quarter and independently of persons responsible, the payroll must be checked to ensure correct and no sign of inflated payments or fictitious names.
 - (d) Stocktaking: there must an annual physical check on all stock and materials held against verified records of stock held, independently of employees responsible for stock
 - (e) Computer security: security controls and checks over computer functions must be integral to the system, with reconciliations made as necessary. Responsibilities for processing of transactions, authorisation of transactions and handling of output, shall be exercised by different employees.

IN ADDITION THE COMPANY WILL PROVIDE COVER UNDER THIS SECTION AS FOLLOWS

Auditors fees

The company will indemnify the insured against the cost of auditors' fees incurred with the company's written consent solely to substantiate a claim under this Section, provided that the indemnity so provided shall not increase the limit of liability provided.
