For better or for 'Insured'

Cover Features:

This summary does not contain full details and conditions of your insurance – these are located in your policy wordings.

This insurance is underwritten by China Taiping Insurance (UK) Co. Ltd.

Type of insurance and purpose of the cover

To obtain a Schengen visa it is required by the European Union that you have insurance for the costs of repatriation and emergency medical expenses worth at least €30,000.

Our Schengen Medical Insurance policy is designed to give you enough cover to obtain a Schengen visa and covers you for any emergency accidental bodily injury or illness as defined in the policy wording.

The insurance certificate must be presented at the time of delivery of the visa.

We offer Medical insurance for both single or annual multi trips to Europe as defined below.

Please refer to your certificate validation document for your selected level of cover.

Eligibility

This policy is not available to anyone aged under 18 or over 80 years old.

If you are aged under 18, insurance only applies if you are accompanied by a responsible adult.

If you reach the age of 80 during the period of insurance, cover will continue until the next renewal date but not thereafter.

This policy is available if your country of residence is not: Syria, Iran, Egypt, Burma, Cuba, Democratic Republic of the Congo, North Korea, Somalia, Sudan, Zimbabwe, Belarus and Iraq.

This policy is only operative during the length of time that you are temporarily travelling in the Europe as defined in the policy wording which includes:

All countries to the west of the Ural Mountains, islands in the Mediterranean, Morocco, Algeria, Egypt, Tunisia, Turkey, the Canary Islands, Madeira, the Azores and Iceland.

Conditions

It is essential that you refer to the important conditions relating to health section in the policy wording as failure to comply with these conditions may jeopardise your claim or cover.

It is imperative that you notify our Emergency Assistance Service immediately when an accident occurs before agreeing to any treatment or repatriation arrangement. Any medical services or repatriation arrangements refused by you or agreed by you without our prior approval will not be subject to indemnity or reimbursement.

Please refer to the wordings for full details.

Significant features and benefits

The policy covers Emergency Medical and Repatriations Expenses as required by the Decision of the Council of the European Union of 22nd December 2003 requiring travel medical insurance for the costs of repatriation and emergency medical expenses worth at least €30,000 as one of the supporting documents required to obtain standard visa.

This policy will cover you for Emergency Medical Services up to £300,000 (Excess: £50 any one claim) for any one insured during any one trip and repatriation costs up to £60,000 per policy.

Please refer to your certificate and policy wording documents for the full extent of cover.

Significant or unusual exclusions or limitations

The standard excesses and any increased amount you have agreed to pay will be shown within your policy wordings or on the certificate validation document. Any trip that has already begun when you purchase this insurance will not be covered, except where you renew an existing annual multi trip certificate which fell due for renewal during the trip.

If you cancel after the first 14 days of receipt of the documents no premium refund will be made.

Please refer to your policy wording for more information.

Please note only the insured as shown on the schedule can cancel this policy.

Additional Information:

How to make a claim or seek medical services agreement or advice

In the event of accidental bodily injury or illness which may lead to in-patient hospital treatment or before any arrangements are made for repatriation you must contact the Emergency Assistance Service.

The service is available to you and operates 24 hours a day, 365 days a year for advice, assistance, making arrangements for hospital admission, repatriation and authorisation of medical expenses.

If you don't contact the Emergency Assistance Service prior to any arrangements of repatriation or any treatment, unless there is an immediate emergency treatment situation which hinders you from being able to contact them, this may lead to a claim not being paid or not paid in full.
